

Lesson 208:

Competitive, Constructive, Preemptive

1. TITLE: THREE TYPES OF BIDDING: RECOGNIZE THEM!

COMPETITIVE

- Without game ambitions
- Suits to play, NOT jump bids
- Only to compete on the part score

CONSTRUCTIVE

- Serious attempt for game or slam
- Informative double / Cue bid / Forcing suit change
- Invites partner to evaluate

PREEMPTIVE

- Many tricks on offense + few on defense
- ALWAYS jump bids!
- Takes away opponents' bidding space

2. HOW TO RECOGNIZE THEM

1

Look at the SYSTEM (conventions)

2

Look at the STRONG ALTERNATIVES available

3

Look at the INTENTION already shown

3. GOLDEN PREEMPTIVE RULE

Make the preemptive bid at the HIGHEST LEVEL at the FIRST OPPORTUNITY!

Don't wait: the second round is too late!

4. EXAMPLE: WITH 7 CARDS AND 5 POINTS ON THE FIRST ROUND

Holding (7 cards, 5 points):

5 HCP

First round:

SOUTH	WEST	NORTH	EAST
3♥	—	—	—

3 in the suit IMMEDIATELY!

Competitive = defend

Constructive = propose

Preemptive = attack!
